Superintendent

I am writing to you because of the incident that had occurred to me last year regarding C.E.R.T and the Grievance department failing to process my Grievances and my Injury report dated 12-30-21 and 12-31-21, both being suddenly lost see attachment.

I am writing to inform you that whats been going on with falsifying of documents and failure to process grievances, and medical assisting with cover-up is a "Conspiracy", and is against the law.

As the Superintendent it is your duty to investigate these issues and to ensure this is put to a stop, and all letters Ive written to you goes unanswered and ignored, including letters written to the administrative staff, so Im ensuring your "on Notice", of all these corrupt acts, &

Dear Superintendent (Burnett)

3-7-22

I am writing to you because on 12-30-21 and on 12-31-21 I was injured due to the malicious intentional acts of C.E.R.T and officer Gibbons and I filed a grievance on 1-3-22 and again on 1-7-22 with no response. I then filed a grievance to appeal the issue to the superintendent on 2-7-22 with again no response and on 3-7-22 I filed a grievance to have all my grievances appealed to C.O.R.C for failure of the ZGRCL to respond. The supervisor ms Reams has intentionally failed to respond to my grievances or any letters I have written her. She is in violation of the directive 4040 and 4041, failing to perform her duties as The ZGRCL supervisor and is attempted to hinder my exhaustion of my administrative Remedies. I am writing to you about this matter, and am including all my grievances so you can investigate why ms Reams is not answering any of my grievances and why she is attempting to conceal what happens to the inmates when C.E.R.T assaulted

I am sending to you a copy of all my grievances to put in file to ensure I had attempted to exhaust my administrative remedies and to have you investigate why ms Reams has failed to file any of my grievances in violation of Directive 4040 and 4041.

Mr Burnett far to often ms Reams actions and failure to perform her duties as the ZGRC supervisor is a big problem and her actions and failure to act will be including her as a defendant in my claim.

As the Superintendent I'm humbly requesting you investigate the matter, and move forward accordingly to ensure inmates have an ZGRC program that addresses our issues and problems and not just disregard our grievances and violate our Constitutional right to petition the U.S. Court. Thank you for your time Respectfully, [Signature]

TO: RODRIGUEZ, R., # 17A0928 9-1

FROM: S. Reams, IGP Supervisor

SUBJECT: Late Complaint

DATE: 3/10/22

Please be advised that in accordance with Directive # 4040, section 701.5, a, 1: "an inmate must submit a complaint to the clerk within 21 calendar days of an alleged occurrence on an Inmate Grievance Complaint Form (Form # 2131). If this form is not readily available, a complaint may be submitted on plain paper. The Complaint may only be filed at the facility where the inmate is housed even if it pertains to another facility." Note: Exceptions to this time limit or any appeal time limits may be approved by the IGP supervisor under section 701.6 (g).

In accordance with Directive # 4040, section 701.6, g, 1, ii, "an inmate may pursue a complaint that an exception to the time limit was denied, by filing a separate grievance."

It is also noted that in accordance with Directive # 4040, 701, g, 1, I, a: "The IGP supervisor may grant an exception to the time limit for filing a grievance based on mitigating circumstances (e.g., timely attempt to resolve a complaint informally by the inmate, etc.). An exception to the time limit may not be granted more than 45 days after an alleged occurrence."

Your issue concerns an incident dated 12-30-21, which makes this complaint too late to accept for processing. As I stated to you today in the IGRC office area, any incarcerated individual assigned to the general population may follow up on any complaint that they state they have submitted, by asking the housing unit officer to call the IGRC office and then coming directly to the IGRC office. At this time, the incarcerated individual may hand deliver a copy of the allegedly submitted complaint or they may sit down and write another one in the IGRC office. It is advisable to follow up on a complaint, directly with the IGRC office in a timely manner, due to the 21 day time limit from the date of incident to file a complaint.

SWORN AFFIDAVIT

I am a inmate at Fishkill Correctional Facility and have multiple medical condition that consist of injuries to my right shoulder, left ankle/leg as well as mental health issues all requiring medication and the medical providers within this facility is severely inadequate. Failing to provide the proper medication and are Deliberately Indifferent to my as well as countless other inmates within this facility. I was approved to get medical boots well over a year ago and was fitted in October of 2021 and to date I have still not received my medical boots. I am suppose to also get surgery on my shoulder, which should have been done months ago, and to date I still have not gotten it. Numerous sick call request goes unanswered, and when I do get called nothing is done to help me with my pain and suffering. The medical staff and providers are Deliberately Indifferent to my medical needs, and grievances are ignored and do nothing to assist. Fishkill Correctional is a Medical facility, and there standard of care is below minimum standard of care and negligence is a common occurrence.

To Whom It May Concern

My name is Ralph Rodriguez and I am an inmate at Fishkill correctional Facility, under Din number 17A0928, and I am a fully Disable inmate.

I am writing to you because on 12-24-21 an inmate within this facility allegedly attempted to walk out the facility, and we was put on lock down for no more than 24 hours, and the very next day we was off lockdown, and the facility continued to move along as normal. This is a medical and mental health facility, and things such as this has happened in the past. Yet on 12-27-21 the Facility was put back on lockdown and C.E.R.T was deployed unto our facility. At no time was there any Security Risk or issue deeming there deployment justified, and when they arrived here, they went from housing unit to housing unit, destroying property of the state, and severely injuring multiple inmates.

I myself was on of these inmates, and on 12-30-21, C.E.R.T came into my housing unit on or about 6:45 am. Prior to there arrival the phones were shut off, and we could see from our windows inmates being kept in the Mess Hall area with their hands above their heads in boxers, and every now and then an inmate would be brutally assaulted. We could hear from our dorms Screams and cries for help that went unanswered, and any attempts to call or inform the authorities of this violent Civil Rights violation went unanswered. The inmate who attempted to walk out the facility was from my housing unit, and each and every inmate within my housing unit was littered with fear, because we knew that when they did come, they had something extra planned for us, because it was said by the staff that "We Ruined there Christmas Weekend". When they arrived to my housing unit the lights were of and they came in screaming and shouting banging there night sticks into whatever they seen.

Immediately without just cause or reason, they started to attack multiple inmates, and I was one of the inmates closest to the door, and as I sat up immediately after they came in I was grabbed from behind my neck and back, lifted off my bed and brutally assaulted by on or about five C.E.R.T officers who was dressed in all black wearing protective gear. While I was being assaulted, I was hit with full closed fist and kicked with there army boots, and as I was being assaulted for about 3-5 minutes One of the officers was saying as he hit me "You Fucking Spick", and that when my leg was pulled from behind me and twisted the opposite way, as well as my arm and wrist. I have severe medical issues and my right hand is disable, as well as had numerous surgery, and have neurological damages, and I screamed out in pain and said "IM DISABLE, IM DISABLE", and after a few more hits later I was lifted up off the floor and slammed face first into the wall, and an officer cuffed me and another was checking my ID and medical documents. During this time six other inmates were also being brutally assaulted as well, and injured. The officer who checked my identification then said "Take those cuffs off him", and they did and the officer holding me said "Just Shut The Fuck Up and Don't Move", which I complied with. I was bleeding through my mouth and head, and they had injured my Head, Neck, Back, Ribs, Legs, Left Ankle, Hands and Wrist, and I was in Severe Pain and Suffering. During this time, all the other inmates whom was also bleeding was dragged away and sent to medical, all being given disciplinary tickets , as a form of justifying their actions, but in no way was any of inmates resisting or failed to follow orders, this was a mass assault on the inmate's within this facility. I myself was never given any Disciplinary ticket, because they could not justify there brutal assault on me, because of my Disability.

It took me well over 10 hours before I was given any medical attention, and when I did make it to medical, in no way was I given any proper care. I was given aspirin and two ace bands and was suppose to be placed into I.C.U but because every room was occupied by an inmate, there was no room for me, so I was sent back to my housing unit, limping and in severe pain.

I made a number of Grievances that went unanswered and made a number of complaint consisting of

President Joe Biden, Law Department of the White House

Department Of Justice, Complaint Number 147143-GCP

Department Of Correctional, Community, Supervision, In Albany

Division Of Human Rights

Correctional Association Of New York (C.A.N.Y)

Now I am respectfully Requesting that a Complaint be made on my Behalf with your Department/Organization, and or Grievance be made.

I am also respectfully requesting Pursuant to the "Freedom Of Information Act", Any and All Complaints or Grievances you may have on file, in regards to C.E.R.T, D.O.C.C.S, and Fishkill Correctional Facility, that you may have on file, including any Investigation reports made, against these entities. (For Excessive Force, and Civil Rights Violations)

I am requesting this information because I am currently pursuing a Civil Rights Claim, against multiple Defendants for the incident that had occurred Please See Rodriguez v. Burnett, et..al., 7:22-CV-02198(PMH), and was granted to proceed "IN FORMA PAUPERIS", and any fee's that may be required can be directed to the "PRO-SE DEPARTMENT", Southern District Of New York, using my claim number.

Im sorry with having to burden you with this issue, but what had occurred here at Fishkill Correctional was unjustified and a Brutal Assault on myself as well as Countless others, and Civil Rights Violations such as these should never go unanswered or brushed under the table, just because we are Incarcerated Individuals of the state, for we are still someones father, Brother, Uncle, Son, Grandson, etc, and are still Civilians of the United States of American with Rights, that should never be violated.

Thank you for your time, and I am in hopes of receiving the information I requested as well as getting a Complaint number, and this incident brought to light, Respectfully your,

Dear Ralph Rodriguez Din #17A0928,

Thank you for your letter on January 25, 2022. Your report number is 147143-GCP. Please refer to it if you write us in the future. This letter will tell you how the Special Litigation Section will review your report and what other options you may choose to pursue.

The Special Litigation Section only handles cases that arise from widespread problems that affect groups of people. We do not assist with individual problems, except as noted below. In general, we cannot help you recover damages or any personal relief. Nor can we assist in criminal cases, including wrongful convictions, appeals or sentencing. We also cannot assist with issues involving federal facilities or federal officials.

There are only two areas in which the law allows us to investigate and address individual incidents:

- if you are being prevented from practicing your religion in a prison, jail, mental hospital or other facility operated by or for a state or local government; or
- if you have encountered a physical obstruction or experienced force or the threat of force when accessing a reproductive health care facility or religious institution.

Each week, we receive many reports of potential violations. We analyze this information to help us select new cases or pursue existing cases. We will review

Dear Mr. Rodriguez,

Thank you for contacting The Correctional Association of New York (CANY)! CANY is the only independent organization in New York with authority under state law to monitor prisons. Under state mandate, we visit prisons, meet with incarcerated persons, correctional officers, and NYS DOCCS officials and report on conditions of confinement to the Commissioner, state legislators, and the public. While we do not have the authority to dictate changes within the system or provide individual legal assistance, we engage in a variety of advocacy strategies to promote improvements across the entire prison system. The information we receive from you and others helps keep us in touch and informed with what is happening on the inside. All that you and others share helps ensure that policy-makers and the public hear the voices of those most impacted by the prison system.

Although we cannot provide individual advocacy, we do keep track of many different issues in prisons, as reported to us by people inside and as observed on our facility visits. If you would like to be placed on a visiting list for future visits by CANY, please let us know.

We also may share the information provided to us with legislators or the public to assist with advocacy efforts and uplift the voices of those who are incarcerated. Names and any other information that could be used to identify a person will not be shared. If a person does not want us to share anything they have written, they can write to us and let us know. Anyone is welcome to continue reporting to us even if they do not want their experiences to be shared or publicized.

Upon release, you may reach out to us via phone at 212-254-5700 or continue to write to us. Please feel free to share our contact information with others, which is listed below.

Enclosed with this letter are the following:

- ☒ Action Guide with some information and contacts regarding different areas of concern and how to address them through administrative/grievance processes, as well as information on organizations that can provide individual advocacy.
- ☒ Information about the activities of CANY and how else you could engage in prison advocacy.

Re: Incident on December 30th, 2021

Dear Mr. Rodriguez,

Unfortunately, we have determined that we are not in a position to represent you in connection with a claim or lawsuit to recover damages for injuries you sustained at Fishkill Correctional Facility on December 30th, 2021. We are a small firm and are necessarily limited in the number and types of cases we can take on. Our decision does not mean that your case does not have merit. Therefore, if you still are interested in pursuing a claim or lawsuit, I suggest that you immediately contact another lawyer. If and when you have access to telephone use, one such way to pursue finding another lawyer would be to contact the New York State Bar Association Lawyer Referral Service at 1(800) 342-3661 or Prisoners' Legal Services of New York Albany Office (518) 438-8046 and explain your situation.

In the meantime, I enclose herewith a summary of time limitations that apply to claims and lawsuits brought by inmates in New York State correctional facilities as well as all documents related to your case.

Dear Ralph Rodriguez:

The New York State Commission of Correction received a public information request from you on September 14, 2022. Your request mentioned:

"a copy of any and all complaints or grievances on file in regards to CERT, DOCCS and Fishkill Correctional Facility including any investigation reports made against these entities".

With regard to your request for any grievances on file regarding to CERT, DOCCS and the Fishkill Correctional Facility, the Commission has conducted a diligent search for records and was not able to locate any records responsive to your request.

With regard to your request for all complaints on file regarding CERT, DOCCS and the Fishkill Correctional Facility, the Commission cannot, under its current system of recordkeeping, retrieve relevant complaints by such a specific complaint subject. As such, it is the opinion of Counsel's Office that, pursuant to Public Officers Law §89(3), you have not "reasonably described" the records sought in the above Freedom of Information Law request, and the same is therefore denied.

Pursuant to Public Officers Law §89(4)(a) you have 30 days to submit a written appeal of this determination to:

On 12-30-21 at around 7:00am CERT (Correctional Emergency Response Team) came into my housing unit, which is 9-1, and severely assaulted 7 inmates. One of them was my neighbor, Ralph Rodriguez DIN 17A0928 and for no reason violently and maliciously assaulted him. One officer had grabbed him by his head and at the same time another grabbed him by his neck. At that point a third officer grabbed Mr. Rodriguez' arm and pulled him out of his cube, at which point those three officers who were manhandling him were joined by two more officers and began hitting him repeatedly ~~with~~ with closed fists. Mr Rodriguez was yelling out, "I'm disabled, I'm disabled!" They still continued the assault for almost a full minute before they stopped. One of the officers took his ID out to check it and saw his medical limitations and told the officer who had him against the wall to "uncuff him and let him go." Because of the fact that he in no way provoked the attack they then left him alone. He was severely injured and didn't even receive medical attention finally until after 6pm, almost a full twelve hours later. This is my sworn affidavit.

On December 30, 2021 a little after 7AM a CERT (Corrections Emergency Response Team) comprised of Corrections Officers from at least 3 other prisons, stormed into my housing unit which is 9-1 and immediately began barking orders and brutally assaulting many people. Seven people were brutally assaulted, one of those seven individuals being Ralph Rodriguez DIN 17A0928.

With malicious intent several members of the CERT squad grabbed Mr. Rodriguez and for no reason and without provocation began assaulting him. They pulled Mr. Rodriguez out of his cube. The first and second officers grabbed him by his head and neck, and a third member grabbed him by the arm; then these three members of the CERT squad were joined by two other officers who all commenced pounding on Mr. Rodriguez with closed fists. I, Andrew Mullings, DIN#: 02A2656, hereby depose and say the following:

On or around December 24, 2022 allegation was made that an incarcerated individual ("I/I") named Christopher Gaudiello attempted to escape from Fishkill Correctional Facility ("I/I"). Based on this allegation, a Correctional Emergency Response Team ("CERT") and other units were brought in at Fishkill on or around December 27, 2022 to search the entire facility.

On December 29, 2021, CERT Officers entered my housing unit (10-2) and took me out of my room and forcefully stripped me down to my underwear and they opened all the windows in my housing unit rec. area and then placed me and other I/Is to remain standing in the very cold weather for hours where my body was being assault by the cold. The CERT Officer at this time was physically beating another I/I across from me.

As a result of the CERT Officers exposing me in the cold, I got sick and was hospitalized after I was diagnosed for bilateral pneumonia, bilateral pulmonary embolism, respiratory failure, and for chest discomfort.

To Ms Sullivan

I am writing to you because it's been well over four months since I was injured by the C.E.R.T team on 12-30-21, and todote I have yet to receive my ten's unit, or have my MRI.

I would like to also like to see you again as soon as possible because last time we met last month you didn't get to cover all my medical issues because you said you was only going to deal with two issues when I seen you. I am still having severe pain in my left ankle, neck, back and now at night my left hip is giving me severe problems and pain, being unable to sleep.

Can you please put me on a call out because it makes no sense to go to sick call if their not going to do anything to help or address my issues. Thank you for your time, Respectfully

Ralph Rodriguez

MRI OF THE LUMBOSACRAL SPINE

Multiplanar and multisequence MRI examination of the lumbosacral spine was performed.

There is straightening of the lordosis compatible with muscular spasm. The vertebrae are normal in height and signal. There is interspace narrowing and dehydration at L5-S1. The conus medullaris and cauda equina are unremarkable.

The L1-L2 and L2-L3 interspaces are without evidence of bulge or herniation.

At L3-L4, there is a broad based disc bulge with a left paracentral component and left sided neuroforaminal narrowing.

At L5-S1, there is a central disc herniation with bilateral neuroforaminal narrowing and lateral recess stenosis - left greater than right.

IMPRESSION:

1. Muscular spasm.
2. Interspace narrowing and dehydration at L5-S1.
3. Broad based disc bulge at L3-L4 with a left paracentral component and left sided neuroforaminal narrowing.
4. Central and left paracentral herniation at L4-L5 with bilateral neuroforaminal narrowing and lateral recess stenosis - left greater than right. Associated spinal stenosis and bilateral facet arthropathy are also appreciated.
5. Central disc herniation at L5-S1 with bilateral neuroforaminal narrowing and lateral recess stenosis - left greater than right.

Thank you very much for allowing me to participate in the care of your patient.

Date of Birth: 08/25/1978
Referring Physician: Jayson Perez NP
Exam: MRI of the Lumbar Spine

HISTORY: Low back pain.

EXAMINATION: MRI scan of the lumbosacral spine.

There is slight loss of the normal lordotic curvature consistent with some paraspinal muscle spasm. No signs of any fractures or osseous lesions identified.

The L1-2, L2-3, L3-4 disc space levels are normal.

At L4-5, there is some mild desiccation and minimal disc bulging. There is a left lateral disc protrusion extending into the inferior aspect of the left L4-5 neural foramina below the level of the exiting nerve root.

At L5-S1, there is mild desiccation and minimal disc bulging.

There is interfacet edema between the posterior articular surfaces which can be a source of low back pain related to inflammation between those posterior articulations. This is most notable at the L5-S1 level.

IMPRESSION:

Interfacet between the posterior articular surfaces, most prominent at the L5-S1 level. Some mild disc bulging at the L4-5 and L5-S1 levels.

RYAN HUMPHREY, being duly sworn, deposed and states under the penalties of perjury as follows:

1. I served as Juror Number 10 on the aforementioned trial.
2. Following the conclusion of the trial, Judge Leach and Mr. Rodriguez' defense counsel came into the deliberation room and spoke to the entire jury for several minutes at which time we informed them both that at the conclusion of the first day of jury deliberations the jury was split 7 votes to 5 in favor of an acquittal.
3. More specifically, at the conclusion of the first full day of deliberations, the jury was split 7 votes to 5 in favor of acquittal on Count 1 (Robbery in the Second Degree), Count 2 (Grand Larceny in the Fourth Degree), and Count 3 (Criminal Possession of a Weapon in the Third Degree). With respect to Count 4 (Resisting Arrest) the jury was split 10 votes to 2 votes in favor of acquittal at the end of the first day of deliberations.
4. The biggest issue in the case was not whether a robbery occurred but whether Mr.

Rodriguez was correctly identified as the person that committed the charged offenses. Although there was certainly corroborating evidence consistent with guilt, there was also a great deal of corroborating evidence which supported Mr. Rodriguez' innocence.

5. Ultimately, the jury found Mr. Rodriguez guilty on all counts. Since the verdict was announced, I have thought often whether Mr. Rodriguez was accurately identified as the person responsible for the robbery of the Game Stop store.

6. I have been advised that the defense was precluded from calling an expert in the field of eyewitness identification. Specifically, the defense sought to have the eyewitness identification expert testify in the areas of weapon focus; event stress; event duration and that eyewitness confidence is a poor predictor of identification accuracy. I am of the opinion that given the conflicting corroboration (both in favor of guilt and innocence) that existed in the case, that the eyewitness identification testimony would have been helpful and useful in this case.

U.S. prosecutors join probe into New York inmate's death

NEW YORK, Aug 27 (Reuters) - Federal prosecutors have joined an investigation into the death of a New York prison inmate who was involved in a confrontation with guards at the Fishkill Correctional Facility in April.

U.S. Attorney Preet Bharara of New York said on Thursday his office is working with the local district attorney in Dutchess County, New York, to investigate the April 21 death of Samuel Harrell.

Lawyers for Harrell's family have said he was beaten to death by corrections officers.

The New York Times, which earlier this month was the first publication to document Harrell's death, reported that inmates at Fishkill described a pattern of brutality by officers at the medium-security prison in Beacon, 65 miles (105 km) north of New York City.

The New York State Police began looking into the death on the night of April 21, when Harrell was pronounced dead at a local hospital.

Harrell, who suffered from bipolar disorder, got into a confrontation with officers when he announced he was going home despite having years left on his sentence for a drug conviction, the Times reported.

He was beaten by as many as 20 officers and either thrown or dragged down a staircase, inmates who witnessed the incident told the newspaper. Some of the guards were part of a group of inmates called the "Beat Up Squad," the newspaper reported.

Corrections officers called an ambulance but did not mention the fight to medics, speculating instead that he had overdosed on drugs, the Times said. The county medical examiner ruled Harrell's death a homicide, according to the Times.

The Department of Corrections and Community Supervision did not immediately comment on Bharara's statement. Earlier this month, a spokesman said the agency was working with state authorities to investigate the incident.

A lawyer for Harrell's family could not immediately be reached for comment.

In June, New York City agreed to institute reforms at the troubled Rikers Island jail complex to resolve civil claims brought by Bharara's office that guards regularly used unnecessary force against inmates. [ID:nLIN0Z828G]

Prison Guard 'Beat Up Squad' Blamed in Death

INMATES' ACCOUNT

No Officers Punished
Amid an Inquiry in
New York State

By MICHAEL WINERIP
and MICHAEL SCHWIRTZ

On the evening of April 21 in Building 21 at the Fishkill Correctional Facility, Samuel Harrell, an inmate with a history of erratic behavior linked to bipolar disorder, packed his bags and announced he was going home, though he still had several years left to serve on his drug sentence.

Not long after, he got into a confrontation with corrections officers, was thrown to the floor and was handcuffed. As many as 20 officers — including members of a group known around the prison as the Beat Up Squad — repeatedly kicked and punched Mr. Harrell, who is black, with some of them shouting racial slurs, according to more than a dozen inmate witnesses. "Like he was a trampoline, they were jumping on him," said Edwin Pearson, an inmate who watched from a nearby bathroom.

Mr. Harrell was then thrown or dragged down a staircase, according to the inmates' accounts. One inmate reported seeing him lying on the landing, "bent in an impossible position."

"His eyes were open," the inmate wrote, "but they weren't looking at anything."

Corrections officers called for an ambulance, but according to medical records, the officers mentioned nothing about a physical encounter. Rather, the Records showed, they told the ambulance crew that Mr. Harrell probably had an overdose of X2, a synthetic marijuana.

He was taken to St. Luke's Cornwall Hospital and, at 10:18 p.m., was pronounced dead.

In the four months since, state corrections officials have provided only the barest details about what happened at Fishkill, a medium-security prison in Beacon, N.Y., about 60 miles north of New York City. Citing a continuing investigation by the State Police, officials for weeks had declined to comment on the inmates' accounts of a beating.

An autopsy report by the Orange County medical examiner, obtained by The New York Times, concluded that Mr. Harrell, 30, had cuts and bruises to his head and extremities and had no illicit drugs in his system, only an antidepressant and tobacco. He died of cardiac arrhythmia, the autopsy report said, "following physical altercation with corrections officers."

The manner of death: Homicide.

Previous Reports of Violence

No officers have been disciplined in connection with the death, officials said. A classification of homicide is a medical term that indicates the death occurred "at the hands of other people, but it does not necessarily mean a crime was com-

said. "You're a big guy and you let these people literally kill you."

The inmates said that during the encounter, an officer they identified as Robert Michaels appeared to have a medical emergency. Mr. Pearson, who later identified Officer Michaels through a Facebook photo, said he saw the officer "tip open his shirt and he was gasping for air and grabbing his chest."

Officers went to attend to Officer Michaels, who was soon carried out on a stretcher, inmates said.

Identifying the Guards

While Mr. Harrell lay still on the floor, officers periodically walked by, kicking him and hitting him, Mr. Camera said.

Most of the inmates could identify the officers by last names only, which they spelled in a variety of ways in their affidavits in a database of New York State employees, SeeThroughNY.net. There are several Fishkill officers who appeared to match the guards most often named by the inmates as being directly involved in the encounter. They are Thomas Dickenson (named by 10 of the inmates), John Yeager (10), Officer Michaels (nine), Bryan Eull (five) and a white woman they knew only as "Ms. B." (four).

They also identified the ranking officer at the scene as Sgt. Joseph Guarino. Reached by telephone, Sergeant Guar-

No officers have been disciplined in connection with the death, officials said. A classification of homicide is a medical term that indicates the death occurred at the hands of other people, but it does not necessarily mean a crime was committed.

Inmate witnesses at Fishkill say they are the ones who have been punished. Several described being put into solitary confinement and threatened with violence after speaking with Mr. Harrell's family, their lawyers and with news reporters.

The Times documented similar allegations of abuse from inmates at the Clinton Correctional Facility in Dannemora, N.Y., where in June two convicted murderers escaped, resulting in a three-week manhunt. There, inmates described being beaten and choked with plastic bags by corrections officers seeking information about the escape. Many were then thrown into solitary confinement.

The prison building where Mr. Harrell was housed has long been singled out as a violent place. In 2013, the Correctional Association of New York, a 171-year-old inmate advocacy group with a legislative mandate to inspect New York State prisons, published a report documenting "harassment and provocation" by officers working in Building 21 from 3 to 11 p.m. This was the same time frame when Mr. Harrell died. The association, which found similar problems in 2008, briefed officials with the Department of Corrections and Community Supervision in April 2013, including the acting commissioner, Anthony Amodeo, as well as Fishkill's superintendent, William J. Connolly, who resigned that month.

Even so, inmates said, the problems have persisted. Five weeks before Mr. Harrell's death, David Martinez, an inmate in Building 21 who was serving time for attempted murder, among other charges, filed a grievance saying he was being assaulted and harassed by officers, and asking that the officers on that shift "be split up." In a subsequent letter he described them as "a group of rogue officers" who "go around beating up people."

In July, another inmate, Ricky Rodriguez, said that officers beat him so severely that he lost his two front teeth and had to be hospitalized. Interviewed a little more than a week after he was released from prison, Mr. Rodriguez, who was serving time for attempted murder, was still covered with cuts and bruises, and the white of his right eye was stained red with blood. "They go out of their way to pick and choose to beat on guys," he said.

The State Police plan to turn over the evidence gathered to the Dutchess County district attorney's office "in the very near future," said Beau Duffy, an agency spokesman. The corrections department said it was cooperating with the State Police.

"Anyone found to have engaged in any misconduct or in any legal violations will be disciplined and prosecuted," the department said in a statement. The Times placed together the events leading to Mr. Harrell's death from 19 affidavits and letters written by inmates and obtained through the law firm Belk, Levine & Hoffman, which is representing Mr. Harrell's family. Most of the inmates shared their affidavits on the condition that their names not be used, because they said they feared retaliation from corrections officers. Three agreed to be interviewed with their names made public.

According to Luna Drouth, a lawyer at the firm, at least nine of the inmates who saw what happened had been placed at some point in solitary confinement. She said that the firm would soon file a lawsuit in connection with the death, and that there was a need for the appointment of a special prosecutor to investigate.

The inmates witnessed the encounter from several vantage points, including a day room and bathroom just a few feet away. Two described being at the bottom of the staircase and seeing Mr. Harrell come falling down.

Inmate witnesses are typically viewed with skepticism by investigators, but the accounts from Fishkill are strikingly consistent. Inmates there are serving sentences for felonies, such as drug crimes and murder, but have earned the right to take part in programs like work-release.

Mental illness

No one could say for sure what set off the confrontation with Mr. Harrell.

There were no surveillance cameras in that area, according to inmates, and corrections officials acknowledged that there are only a few for the entire prison.

James Miller, a spokesman for the corrections officers' union, the New York State Correctional Officers & Police Benevolent Association, said in an email last month that Mr. Harrell was "acting violently and appeared delusional as a result of apparently ingesting drugs." While trying to subdue him, one guard had several ribs broken, Mr. Miller said.

Officials have described abuse of 22 by inmates as a problem throughout the state prison system.

On Monday, Mr. Miller wrote in an email that the union was "reviewing all the facts before reaching to judgment." Rather than simply relying on allegations made by a handful of violent convicted felons," he wrote, "we will continue to work with our partners in law enforcement to ensure a resolution to this tragic incident."

Mr. Harrell had served several stints in prison for drug crimes starting in 2002. He had five disciplinary infractions while incarcerated, including one day before his death for possessing contraband, according to prison records. None involved violence.

Inmates and family members say that any erratic behavior more likely stemmed from his mental illness. In the weeks before his death, they said, he had bipolar disorder and was hospitalized, according to medical records. His wife, Diane Harrell, said that when he was not taking his medication, he would go through the house turning over family photographs for fear they were starting at him. He also believed the television was talking to him, she said.

Mr. Harrell also had a history of heart disease and drug abuse, which the autopsy report said contributed to his death.

The day he died, several inmates described him as being depressed and withdrawn. Ibrahim Camara said he found Mr. Harrell sitting alone, watching television and asked what was wrong. "I said, 'Is it your mom, family or something?'" Mr. Camara recalled in a phone interview from prison. "He shook his head yes." Mr. Harrell's mother had died in November.

Around 8:30 that night, Mr. Harrell — whose nickname was JRock — told two officers that his wife and sister were coming to pick him up and take him home, according to one inmate's affidavit.

His earliest release date from prison was September 2020.

The officers called for medical and mental health assistance but could not reach anyone, the inmate reported. Soon after, the inmate said that two more officers arrived. "I believe JRock punched after seeing all those officers surrounding him," the inmate wrote. "JRock jumped up and ran."

Mr. Camara said he was in the day room, watching a playoff game between the Boston Celtics and Cleveland Cavaliers, when he heard a commotion in the hallway. "We and other inmates, we hear the walls shaking, doors, doors, doors, doors," he recalled. "Somebody opened up the door and looked outside, and said, 'Yo, that's JRock they got out there.'"

He was on the floor face down and handcuffed. Several inmates said, in short order, a large group of officers converged around him. The inmates in their affidavits and letters identified nine officers by name as being involved. "I saw the officers kicking him, jumping on his head, multiple times and screaming, 'Stop resisting, even though I didn't see him moving,'" wrote Mr. Pearson, who has since been released after serving two years on a weapons charge.

None of the affidavits or letters mentioned Mr. Harrell's fighting back or speaking during the encounter. Several said that once he was on the floor, handcuffed, he stopped moving, and a few of the inmates speculated he may have already been dead by then.

Indeed, Mr. Camara said inmates were surprised that Mr. Harrell, who was over six feet tall and weighed 235 pounds, did not try to defend himself. "People was even mad, I was mad," he wrote women they knew only as "NLS B" (low).

They also identified the warden officer at the scene as Sgt. Joseph Guarino. Reached by telephone, Sergeant Guarino confirmed he was present that night but said he could not comment.

Neither the corrections department nor the union would confirm the names of the officers. Reached by phone, several of the officers declined to comment. Others did not respond to voice mail messages, emails or messages sent through Facebook.

Through the years, Sergeant Guarino, 60, has been sued several times by inmates accusing him of brutality. One case was settled by the state in 2012 for $60,000 and another in 2011 for $85,000. In a 2011 deposition, he said inmates typically filed about 30 grievances against him a year and referred to him by the nickname Sergeant Searchlight. Four inmates wrote that after Officer Michael was taken away, they heard Sergeant Guarino order officers to throw Mr. Harrell down the stairs.

Harrell came rolling sideways down the stairs, Mr. Martinez wrote, adding that he had a "pedestal tied all around his body and he was in mechanical restraints."

Mr. Martinez said that two officers he identified as Mr. Bull and Mr. Dickerson then tried to put Mr. Harrell into a wheelchair but had difficulty lifting him. Mr. Harrell, he wrote, "was not responsive at all" and kept sliding off the wheelchair.

Another inmate who was nearby said that Officer Bull ordered him to stop looking, and then grabbed him and pushed him into a corner. "He then told me, 'You better forget what you saw here if you ever want to make it home,'" the affidavit said.

An inmate looking out of his cell wrote that he saw Mr. Harrell being taken away. The inmate wrote that he had seen 10 to 15 corrections officers "surrounding a wheelchair being wheeled out of the building with a white sheet draped over a body that could have been raised because I seen bare feet dragging on the ground."

According to records from the ambulance service, a call came reporting a possible overdose at the Fishkill prison at 9:10 p.m.; the ambulance team arrived there at 9:30 p.m. and reached Mr. Harrell by 9:34 p.m. "S said reports that he was possibly smoking X2 and became very aggressive shortly after he went unresponsive and into cardiac arrest," the records said.

The next morning at 7:30, Mr. Harrell's sister, Christina Harrell, received an unannounced call from an inmate in Building 21.

"He called me and said, 'Sam got hit the night before and they took him and he hasn't been back and nobody has heard or seen from him,'" Ms. Harrell said.

"You could hear the frailness in his voice," she added.

A half-hour later, she said, someone from the corrections agency called to say her brother was dead.

Ricky Rodriguez, a former inmate, at his attorney's house. Rodriguez said he lost two front teeth and had to be hospitalized.
